

The Janesville Daily Gazette.

VOLUME 29

Entered at the Post Office at Janesville Wis., as second-class matter.

JANESVILLE, WISCONSIN WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 2, 1885

Published Every Evening Except Sunday, at 80 a year

NUMBER 230

The country is still being noticed that the free trade democrats propose to monkey with the tariff. The free traders will soon learn that this question is a good deal like a pistol loaded at both ends—a very unsafe thing to fool with.

Next Friday the republican senators will hold a caucus to discuss the question of president of the senate. Some object to taking Legan from the floor of the senate where he is much needed, but the chances are that he will be chosen president.

The growth of the Indian school at Carlisle Barracks, Penn., has been from eighty-four pupils in 1873 to only six thousand in 1880 at the present time. The Indians now in the school represent thirty-eight different tribes, and the ages of the students range from seven to twenty-four years. The Apaches have fifty representatives, the Sioux eighty-eight, the Navajos and the Cheyennes twenty-four each, the Omahas twenty-two, and the Pueblos eighty-nine.

Some of the northern democratic papers do not find comfort over the prohibition movement in the south, and the New York Star, the official administration organ of New York city, raises the signal of hope for the democrats by saying, "Let the south take heart. This thing (prohibition) will not last." But local prohibition seems to press on with rapid gait. When prohibition in the north tends to weaken the republican party, the democrats are in favor of prohibition; but when prohibition tends to weaken the democratic party then the democrats are opposed to prohibition.

Congressman Joe Rankin has gone to Washington to take his seat next Monday, and it is hoped that he will live long enough to take the oath of office. He is very much excited, and can not take a step without assistance; but he is intensely plucky, and his remarkable grip on life shows the strong will and the indomitable courage of the man. Nothing but the love for his family has kept the man out of the grave so long, when the oath is administered next Monday, his wife will be entitled to $10,000—two years' salary—in case of his death during the present session. Rankin's thousands of friends in Wisconsin hope that he will not only live to take the oath of office, but live far beyond the Forty-ninth congress.

When the present administration took charge of affairs it announced with great trumpet-blare that it had adopted a policy which would keep the navy in such a state of efficiency as the number and deteriorated condition of naval vessels would permit. Further, it declared that the appropriation for the fiscal year would be divided up in twelve parts, so that each month would have its allotment and there would be no intermittent employment of workmen. The allotments for July and August were allowed to accumulate so as to permit the employment of a larger force than could otherwise have been taken, and from the 1st of September till election day the activity in the yards recalled the days when the shops and shiphouses re-echoed with the hammerings of the mechanics. A total of 1,345 men were employed, but no sooner was the election over than fifty per cent of them were discharged. Navy yard officials on Saturday announced that not only had the November allotment of the appropriation been expended, but only $400 remained available for work up to January 1. This is "economy" and "reform" with a vengeance.

The funeral of the late Vice President Hendricks took place at his home in Indianapolis yesterday. The concourse of people who thronged to pay their last respects to the noted dead, was one of the largest ever known at a funeral in Indiana. Thus is laid to rest one who has been a conspicuous figure in American politics for more than a quarter of a century. Bitter as was his partisanship, and warm as was his friendship for slavery and its champions, it is thrilling in these days when there is so much said about the moral laxity of public men, to consider the purity of his domestic life. The forty years that measured the married life of Mr. and Mrs. Hendricks, is nothing less than a beautiful story of matrimonial fidelity and happiness, and it is a pleasure to dwell in the enchanting presence of such a life of domestic felicity because, and experienced tell us how many public men, great in intellect but helpless in moral will, go down in the midst of the multiplied trials and strong temptations surrounding the life of a public man. Mrs. Hendricks did grandly all through her married life in imparting inspiration to her husband to take that road that leads to domestic fidelity and high personal honor, and to win at all times the "confidence, smiles and praises" of her husband!

THE POSTMASTER GENERAL'S DEFENCE.

Postmaster General Vilas will certainly in his forthcoming report what he calls an explanation of his conduct in overruling a law of congress which appropriated $400,000 for carrying the telegraph line, one end of which was to be paid the American telegraph company. Postmaster General Vilas will call in his defense that he did not need any explanation. You go on Mr. Gazette and make an issue of this if you want to, and you will have a job on your as difficult to explain as the "burn this" "Dear Father" letters. The people of this country have been raged by such brazen steals as this $400,000 job, so often that they have no patience with those who support him.

But the postmaster general has done the very thing the Gazette two weeks ago said he would do. He promised to explain his conduct in overruling a law of congress, and notwithstanding standing the denial of the Madison Democrat, some ten or twelve pages of his report are devoted to the controversy with the stormy lines. He defends his conduct just as the Gazette said he would, and tries to justify his action in defying the law of congress and demoralizing the foreign mail service. With regard to the postmaster general's line of argument in defending himself, the Gazette has nothing to say until the report, which was issued in Washington on Tuesday, shall have reached us, but it says this much to show how a partisan paper like the Democrat, can lose its head while attempting to defend so poor a piece of statesmanship as Colouel Vilas has shown in his course with the foreign mail-stealship line.

HALLECK'S INJUSTICE TO GRANT.

Colonel Fred D. Grant has published in the North American Review for December, some extracts from the correspondence between his father and General Halleck after the capture of Fort Donelson. They disclose no secrets, but they are interesting memorials of the well known fact that Grant narrowly missed removal as a reward for his first remarkable victory—a victory which, as we now see, indicated the very qualities of promptness, resolution and resource to which he owed so much of his later success. Halleck believed that C. F. Smith was a better general than Grant, and endeavored not only to give him the chief credit for the fall of Donelson but even to have him promoted over the head of his commanding officer. Smith was a fine soldier and a loyal subordinate; no misunderstanding ever occurred between him and his chief; and his death soon afterward put a stop to Halleck's plan. It did not, however, mollify Halleck's dislike and distrust of Grant, which continued unabated to the very last.

One can not read the official correspondence between Grant and Halleck without a feeling of contempt for the latter. He disliked Grant intensely and instead of giving him encouragement during the winter of 1862, he flung discouragement at him. Everybody who knows anything of the battle of Fort Donelson, that the place was taken only by the persistent courage of General Grant. He was in command. He planned the battle. When the bad weather and the strong Confederate position seemed to conspire against him, Grant never lost hope and did not lose his head. Buckner soon learned that he had a man of extraordinary pertinacity against him and the "unconditional surrender" note settled the question for Buckner, and he gave Donelson to Grant. But after all this was done, Halleck telegraphed McClellan: "General Smith by his coolness and bravery at Fort Donelson when the battle was against him, turned the tide and carried the enemy's works. Make him a major-general." General Smith did do much to win Donelson, but his scheme to place Smith above Grant did not succeed. Both were promoted, but not in the way Halleck wanted it done. Honor was given to whom honor was due, and in six weeks came Shiloh with Grant in command. This led to the Vicksburg campaign and its marvelous success—a success that probably never would have been won had Halleck been permitted to crush Grant as he desired.

Great changes sometimes take place in the affairs of men. Grant in due time became commander of all the armies of the United States. Halleck was called from the west to Washington. He never got command of an army. When Grant was made lieutenant general, Halleck never got beyond the position of chief of staff to Grant, and there he remained till the close of the war, having plenty of time on his hands to ponder on the usefulness of a man masking a fool of himself simply because he has an opportunity.

For the Kitchen. —
I have an Englishman who will be found a first rate
thing to mix with a polish.

Give the kitchen and old fruit pies with white of egg and they will not be soggy.

Fried bananas are pleasant breakfast fritter. Chop very firm bananas; peel and slice them; sprinkle with a little salt; dip the pieces in thin batter and fry in butter a delicate brown. They must be served immediately. John L. Sullivan.

Wants the Dollar Received.

Chicago, Dec. 3.—Senator Sabin, of Minnesota, was in the city Tuesday. He favored the election of Edmunds to the chair of the Senate, but thought Logan was a stronger man. He was asked by viewers on a silver question and said: "An iron in iron of having 100 cents of metal in the dollar and reckoning to that end."

All Respect Paid to Veteran Warriors.

The heroes of the recent unpleasantness are fast passing away. In each section of this fair land, now happily reunited forever, the warriors are cherished and made much of, and a fair example shown in the universal respect paid in all places for the high integrity and strict honesty shown by Gen'l G. T. Beauregard, of La., and J. E. B. Stuart, of Va., in the service respectively of the Grand Army. The 187th Monthly and Semi-Annual Drawing will scatter over half a million on Tuesday, December 15th, at New Orleans, La., and anyone desiring information can receive it on application to M. A. Dauphin, New Orleans, La. Try the experiment of proving your luck.

Prof. Gilhooly's Boxing School

NOW OPEN.

For particulars inquire at "The Little Red front cigar store," opposite P. O. Lesson's gun shop, 10th and Main streets, or at the post office, will be received, and entire satisfaction guaranteed.

Boxing as an Exercise.

The heroes of the recent unpleasantness are fast passing away. In each section of this fair land, now happily reunited forever, the warriors are cherished and made much of, and a fair example shown in the universal respect paid in all places for the high integrity and strict honesty shown by Gen'l G. T. Beauregard, of La., and J. E. B. Stuart, of Va., in the service respectively of the Grand Army. The 187th Monthly and Semi-Annual Drawing will scatter over half a million on Tuesday, December 15th, at New Orleans, La., and anyone desiring information can receive it on application to M. A. Dauphin, New Orleans, La. Try the experiment of proving your luck.

Value of Time and Temper.

John L. Sullivan.

I have people in our "parlors" where the carpet is clean and not old, and the furniture polished and bright; into "room" where the chairs are round and the floor carpeted into "kitchens" where the family live and the male are cooks and eaters, and the boys and girls are at table as the sparrows in the thatch overhead, and I see that it is not so much wealth and learning, nor clothing, nor servants, nor oil, nor tallow, nor town, nor country, nor station, as tone and temper that render homes happy and comfortable.

Elgin Watch Co., Other Scientific American, 301 Broadway, New York.

Elgin Watch Co., Other Scientific American, 301 Broadway, New York.

Elgin Watch Co., Other Scientific American, 301 Broadway, New York.

Elgin Watch Co., Other Scientific American, 301 Broadway, New York.

Elgin Watch Co., Other Scientific American, 301 Broadway, New York.

Elgin Watch Co., Other Scientific American, 301 Broadway, New York.

CONDENSED NEWS.

The French cabinet has agreed to discuss the increase of duties on foreign wheat.

A vessel of grain containing 69 per cent of salted beans struck at St. Ignace, Mich., at a depth of 200 feet.

The supreme court of Ohio has decided that the Cleveland and Cincinnati election law is unconstitutional.

John E. Beale, a Washington banker, was married Tuesday to a daughter of Hon. Frank Landers, of Indianapolis.

Only three miles are running at Minneapolis. Some southern wheat goes to Chicago, but nearly all the northern crop is being rushed to Duluth.

Under instructions from Secretary Manning, the customs collector at Baltimore will make retrograde in salaries to the amount of $30,000 per annum.

A steamer at Chicago levied on the fish and fruit goods of Edward H. Hamord, in South Water street whose liabilities are $30,000, largely due to excessive expenses.

The family of J. C. Adams, an attorney of Milwaukee, Ind., was on Sunday poisoned by taking morphine for quinsins. It is feared that four deaths will be the result.

Citizen of Charlotte, Mich., made up a purse for an aged and penniless man named William Conrad, who was refused admittance to his son's farm-house, near that place.

Railroad stocks in Chicago have reached the dizzy figures of $200 to $250 per share for the south side lines, $225 bid for north division, and $300 to $350 for north Chicago.

The Young Men's Christian association of Chicago chose its president and vice-president, respectively, John V. Farwell, Jr., and Cyrus H. McCormick, Jr. Members number 3,420. The daily attendance averages 1,000.

With Congress to assemble next Monday, Washington is said to be as dead as in mid-summer. The re-election of all the surviving officers of the last house is regarded as a foregone conclusion. Hatch of Missouri is of opinion that the silver man will agree to a reduction of the million-dollar sum of dollars.

Gen. Shaler, of New York, who is charged with accepting money for his influence in the purchase of sites for armories, set up throughout Monday night at police headquarters. Bail in $10,000 was furnished at noon by Gustav Schwab, a steamboat agent. The grand jury will sit on Wednesday morning.

The Toledo members of St. Albert's Polish Catholic church in Detroit threw the new priest into the snow, locked the doors, Twenty-five policemen and a dozen soldiers from patrol-wagons and engaged in a bloody fight with the enraged women, who used umbrellas, stones, and clubs. The contest lasted for an hour. The disposed priest quieted his people by promising to remain until the trouble was settled.

The Wisconsin Central road is still pur- chasing property in Chicago to carry out the Grand Trunk terminal scheme.

Twenty-five police officers and a dozen soldiers from patrol-wagons and engaged in a bloody fight with the enraged women, who used umbrellas, stones, and clubs. The contest lasted for an hour. The disposed priest quieted his people by promising to remain until the trouble was settled.

The Wisconsin Central road is still pur- chasing property in Chicago to carry out the Grand Trunk terminal scheme.

Twenty-five police officers and a dozen soldiers from patrol-wagons and engaged in a bloody fight with the enraged women, who used umbrellas, stones, and clubs. The contest lasted for an hour. The disposed priest quieted his people by promising to remain until the trouble was settled.

The Wisconsin Central road is still pur- chasing property in Chicago to carry out the Grand Trunk terminal scheme.

Twenty-five police officers and a dozen soldiers from patrol-wagons and engaged in a bloody fight with the enraged women, who used umbrellas, stones, and clubs. The contest lasted for an hour. The disposed priest quieted his people by promising to remain until the trouble was settled.

The Wisconsin Central road is still pur- chasing property in Chicago to carry out the Grand Trunk terminal scheme.

Twenty-five police officers and a dozen soldiers from patrol-wagons and engaged in a bloody fight with the enraged women, who used umbrellas, stones, and clubs. The contest lasted for an hour. The disposed priest quieted his people by promising to remain until the trouble was settled.

The Wisconsin Central road is still pur- chasing property in Chicago to carry out the Grand Trunk terminal scheme.

Twenty-five police officers and a dozen soldiers from patrol-wagons and engaged in a bloody fight with the enraged women, who used umbrellas, stones, and clubs. The contest lasted for an hour. The disposed priest quieted his people by promising to remain until the trouble was settled.

The Wisconsin Central road is still pur- chasing property in Chicago to carry out the Grand Trunk terminal scheme.

Twenty-five police officers and a dozen soldiers from patrol-wagons and engaged in a bloody fight with the enraged women, who used umbrellas, stones, and clubs. The contest lasted for an hour. The disposed priest quieted his people by promising to remain until the trouble was settled.

The Wisconsin Central road is still pur- chasing property in Chicago to carry out the Grand Trunk terminal scheme.

Twenty-five police officers and a dozen soldiers from patrol-wagons and engaged in a bloody fight with the enraged women, who used umbrellas, stones, and clubs. The contest lasted for an hour. The disposed priest quieted his people by promising to remain until the trouble was settled.

The Wisconsin Central road is still pur- chasing property in Chicago to carry out the Grand Trunk terminal scheme.

Twenty-five police officers and a dozen soldiers from patrol-wagons and engaged in a bloody fight with the enraged women, who used umbrellas, stones, and clubs. The contest lasted for an hour. The disposed priest quieted his people by promising to remain until the trouble was settled.

The Wisconsin Central road is still pur- chasing property in Chicago to carry out the Grand Trunk terminal scheme.

Twenty-five police officers and a dozen soldiers from patrol-wagons and engaged in a bloody fight with the enraged women, who used umbrellas, stones, and clubs. The contest lasted for an hour. The disposed priest quieted his people by promising to remain until the trouble was settled.

The Wisconsin Central road is still pur- chasing property in Chicago to carry out the Grand Trunk terminal scheme.

Twenty-five police officers and a dozen soldiers from patrol-wagons and engaged in a bloody fight with the enraged women, who used umbrellas, stones, and clubs. The contest lasted for an hour. The disposed priest quieted his people by promising to remain until the trouble was settled.

The Wisconsin Central road is still pur- chasing property in Chicago to carry out the Grand Trunk terminal scheme.

Twenty-five police officers and a dozen soldiers from patrol-wagons and engaged in a bloody fight with the enraged women, who used umbrellas, stones, and clubs. The contest lasted for an hour. The disposed priest quieted his people by promising to remain until the trouble was settled.

The Wisconsin Central road is still pur- chasing property in Chicago to carry out the Grand Trunk terminal scheme.

Twenty-five police officers and a dozen soldiers from patrol-wagons and engaged in a bloody fight with the enraged women, who used umbrellas, stones, and clubs. The contest lasted for an hour. The disposed priest quieted his people by promising to remain until the trouble was settled.

The Wisconsin Central road is still pur- chasing property in Chicago to carry out the Grand Trunk terminal scheme.

Twenty-five police officers and a dozen soldiers from patrol-wagons and engaged in a bloody fight with the enraged women, who used umbrellas, stones, and clubs. The contest lasted for an hour. The disposed priest quieted his people by promising to remain until the trouble was settled.

The Wisconsin Central road is still pur- chasing property in Chicago to carry out the Grand Trunk terminal scheme.

Twenty-five police officers and a dozen soldiers from patrol-wagons and engaged in a bloody fight with the enraged women, who used umbrellas, stones, and clubs. The contest lasted for an hour. The disposed priest quieted his people by promising to remain until the trouble was settled.

The Wisconsin Central road is still pur- chasing property in Chicago to carry out the Grand Trunk terminal scheme.

Twenty-five police officers and a dozen soldiers from patrol-wagons and engaged in a bloody fight with the enraged women, who used umbrellas, stones, and clubs. The contest lasted for an hour. The disposed priest quieted his people by promising to remain until the trouble was settled.

The Wisconsin Central road is still pur- chasing property in Chicago to carry out the Grand Trunk terminal scheme.

Twenty-five police officers and a dozen soldiers from patrol-wagons and engaged in a bloody fight with the enraged women, who used umbrellas, stones, and clubs. The contest lasted for an hour. The disposed priest quieted his people by promising to remain until the trouble was settled.

The Wisconsin Central road is still pur- chasing property in Chicago to carry out the Grand Trunk terminal scheme.

Twenty-five

THE GAZETTE.

WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 2.

PUBLISHED BY THE GAZETTE PRESS CO.,
FORT WORTH, TEXAS, DAILY, $1.00
PANCAKES, BISCUITS, WHEAT, BREAD, EGGS, MEAT, FISH, VEGETABLES,
BUTTER, CREAM, SUGAR, COFFEE,
TEA, COKE, LEMONADE, ETC.
H. P. BLISS, PUBLISHER AND EDITOR,
TEAM AND MANAGER,
WM. BLADON,
JOHN O. SPENCER, SECRETARY,
OTTO EDINGER.

AT REST IN THE TOMB

FINAL HONORS TO INDIANA'S DEAD STATESMAN.

A Multitude Present to Pay a Last Tribute of Respect to the Departed.

Vice President Hendricks' Body Placed in the Tomb with Impressive Services and Followed by Mourning Thousands.

Beautiful Floral Decorations at His Late Home—The Scene in St. Paul's Cathedral and at the Grave—The Clergyman's Tribute—Funeral Notes.

INDIANAPOLIS, Dec. 2.—Frowning clouds and forbidding rain-showers were no restraint or disconcert to the thousands of people who thronged the remains of Thomas A. Hendricks to the grave. The living vice president could not have wished more honor and reverence for the dead statesman. Below, multitudes ushered him to rest through ways that were clothed and arched with emblems and robes of sorrow. Above, mournful billows of clouds swept across the sky, fitfully shedding rays of light, as if in memory of the departed. To fifty thousand who witnessed the sad ceremonies were added, streams of joyful sunlight filtering through the heavenly arch and enveloping the melancholy scene in a warm embrace.

The city has never, probably, been as full of strangers. Certainly there never has been gathered here on any occasion so distinguished more than were here. The most of the prominent men from distant and neighboring states made their home to honor the dead. From motives of sincere respect and veneration thousands came from their distant homes whose names will never be heralded before the public. All the trains Monday night were densely crowded, and from 10 to 11:30 a constant stream of people issued from the depot in the direction of the hotel, all intent upon obtaining a place of shelter for the night. The hotels were, of course, taxed to the utter capacity, as perhaps they have never been before.

Ex-President Hayes has become somewhat stouter, and his beard is thicker than when he was last in Indianapolis, five years ago. He talked with various gentlemen in the lobby of the Dennis Monday night, and attracted much attention. He was dressed very plainly, and has the appearance of a well-to-do farmer rather than a statesman.

To a reporter he said that he was well acquainted with Mr. Hendricks, and was especially shocked to hear of his sudden death.

The Hendricks home on Tennessee street was surrounded by people at an early hour Tuesday. The parlor wherein lay the dead was filled with memorial floral spray. The most notable offering was that which Mr. Hendricks was holding. It was six feet in length and four in height, its sides being composed of calla lilies, hyacinths, carnations, and roses. The roof was of English ivy and smilax, and the chimney of red and white carnations. On one side of the miniature structure, in purple immortelles, was the inscription: "The home of my boyhood," and on the other, "Shelbyville." On the end of the cabin was a black-and-white piano bearing in its top a small figure of a finger touching the keys as if it slept; and just second in size above it was a small inscription underneath: "Shelbyville mourns her distinguished, and gifted son."

During the morning the arrival of additional floral designs caused a change in the arrangement. An emblem of "Gates Ajar," from the Cook County Democratic club, of Chicago, was placed at the head of the casket. Perhaps the most moving and touching tribute was the simple wreath from the village of Fultonham, Ohio, where Mr. Hendricks was born. It was placed on the casket alongside the more rare and brilliant products of the White Rose conservatory received in the morning from Miss Cleveland.

Mr. Hendricks took leave of the dead at 9 o'clock. The ordeal nearly prostrated him.

At his request the remains were photographed.

At 11:30 o'clock the remains were borne to St. Paul's cathedral. A thousand people crowded into the edifice. The services were conducted by Dr. Jenkins followed, and the benediction was then pronounced by Bishop Knickerbocker.

When Mrs. Hendricks, leaning upon the arm of Mr. Morgan, stepped upon the mat that led beside the grave and before the casket was removed from the hearse, she caused to look down into the last resting place of her dead only to see a picture of loveliness in its lining of green leaves and flowers. Then she turned to the grave of her child, which had been made glorious with a covering of smilax and flowers, and read in letters of white silk the name "Morgan."

On the ground near the monument for the reception of the burial casket, the inner walls of the vault were completely covered with smilax and roses, so that the bare earth was at no place visible.

The religious services were very brief and simple. Dr. Fulton and Stringfellow pronouncing sentences. The eulogial service by Dr. Jenkins followed, and the benediction was then pronounced by Bishop Knickerbocker.

When Mrs. Hendricks, leaning upon the arm of Mr. Morgan, stepped upon the mat that led beside the grave and before the casket was removed from the hearse, she caused to look down into the last resting place of her dead only to see a picture of loveliness in its lining of green leaves and flowers. Then she turned to the grave of her child, which had been made glorious with a covering of smilax and flowers, and read in letters of white silk the name "Morgan."

On the ground near the monument for the reception of the burial casket, the inner walls of the vault were completely covered with smilax and roses, so that the bare earth was at no place visible.

The religious services were very brief and simple. Dr. Fulton and Stringfellow pronouncing sentences. The eulogial service by Dr. Jenkins followed, and the benediction was then pronounced by Bishop Knickerbocker.

When Mrs. Hendricks, leaning upon the arm of Mr. Morgan, stepped upon the mat that led beside the grave and before the casket was removed from the hearse, she caused to look down into the last resting place of her dead only to see a picture of loveliness in its lining of green leaves and flowers. Then she turned to the grave of her child, which had been made glorious with a covering of smilax and flowers, and read in letters of white silk the name "Morgan."

On the ground near the monument for the reception of the burial casket, the inner walls of the vault were completely covered with smilax and roses, so that the bare earth was at no place visible.

The religious services were very brief and simple. Dr. Fulton and Stringfellow pronouncing sentences. The eulogial service by Dr. Jenkins followed, and the benediction was then pronounced by Bishop Knickerbocker.

When Mrs. Hendricks, leaning upon the arm of Mr. Morgan, stepped upon the mat that led beside the grave and before the casket was removed from the hearse, she caused to look down into the last resting place of her dead only to see a picture of loveliness in its lining of green leaves and flowers. Then she turned to the grave of her child, which had been made glorious with a covering of smilax and flowers, and read in letters of white silk the name "Morgan."

On the ground near the monument for the reception of the burial casket, the inner walls of the vault were completely covered with smilax and roses, so that the bare earth was at no place visible.

The religious services were very brief and simple. Dr. Fulton and Stringfellow pronouncing sentences. The eulogial service by Dr. Jenkins followed, and the benediction was then pronounced by Bishop Knickerbocker.

When Mrs. Hendricks, leaning upon the arm of Mr. Morgan, stepped upon the mat that led beside the grave and before the casket was removed from the hearse, she caused to look down into the last resting place of her dead only to see a picture of loveliness in its lining of green leaves and flowers. Then she turned to the grave of her child, which had been made glorious with a covering of smilax and flowers, and read in letters of white silk the name "Morgan."

On the ground near the monument for the reception of the burial casket, the inner walls of the vault were completely covered with smilax and roses, so that the bare earth was at no place visible.

The religious services were very brief and simple. Dr. Fulton and Stringfellow pronouncing sentences. The eulogial service by Dr. Jenkins followed, and the benediction was then pronounced by Bishop Knickerbocker.

When Mrs. Hendricks, leaning upon the arm of Mr. Morgan, stepped upon the mat that led beside the grave and before the casket was removed from the hearse, she caused to look down into the last resting place of her dead only to see a picture of loveliness in its lining of green leaves and flowers. Then she turned to the grave of her child, which had been made glorious with a covering of smilax and flowers, and read in letters of white silk the name "Morgan."

On the ground near the monument for the reception of the burial casket, the inner walls of the vault were completely covered with smilax and roses, so that the bare earth was at no place visible.

The religious services were very brief and simple. Dr. Fulton and Stringfellow pronouncing sentences. The eulogial service by Dr. Jenkins followed, and the benediction was then pronounced by Bishop Knickerbocker.

When Mrs. Hendricks, leaning upon the arm of Mr. Morgan, stepped upon the mat that led beside the grave and before the casket was removed from the hearse, she caused to look down into the last resting place of her dead only to see a picture of loveliness in its lining of green leaves and flowers. Then she turned to the grave of her child, which had been made glorious with a covering of smilax and flowers, and read in letters of white silk the name "Morgan."

On the ground near the monument for the reception of the burial casket, the inner walls of the vault were completely covered with smilax and roses, so that the bare earth was at no place visible.

The religious services were very brief and simple. Dr. Fulton and Stringfellow pronouncing sentences. The eulogial service by Dr. Jenkins followed, and the benediction was then pronounced by Bishop Knickerbocker.

When Mrs. Hendricks, leaning upon the arm of Mr. Morgan, stepped upon the mat that led beside the grave and before the casket was removed from the hearse, she caused to look down into the last resting place of her dead only to see a picture of loveliness in its lining of green leaves and flowers. Then she turned to the grave of her child, which had been made glorious with a covering of smilax and flowers, and read in letters of white silk the name "Morgan."

On the ground near the monument for the reception of the burial casket, the inner walls of the vault were completely covered with smilax and roses, so that the bare earth was at no place visible.

The religious services were very brief and simple. Dr. Fulton and Stringfellow pronouncing sentences. The eulogial service by Dr. Jenkins followed, and the benediction was then pronounced by Bishop Knickerbocker.

When Mrs. Hendricks, leaning upon the arm of Mr. Morgan, stepped upon the mat that led beside the grave and before the casket was removed from the hearse, she caused to look down into the last resting place of her dead only to see a picture of loveliness in its lining of green leaves and flowers. Then she turned to the grave of her child, which had been made glorious with a covering of smilax and flowers, and read in letters of white silk the name "Morgan."

On the ground near the monument for the reception of the burial casket, the inner walls of the vault were completely covered with smilax and roses, so that the bare earth was at no place visible.

The religious services were very brief and simple. Dr. Fulton and Stringfellow pronouncing sentences. The eulogial service by Dr. Jenkins followed, and the benediction was then pronounced by Bishop Knickerbocker.

When Mrs. Hendricks, leaning upon the arm of Mr. Morgan, stepped upon the mat that led beside the grave and before the casket was removed from the hearse, she caused to look down into the last resting place of her dead only to see a picture of loveliness in its lining of green leaves and flowers. Then she turned to the grave of her child, which had been made glorious with a covering of smilax and flowers, and read in letters of white silk the name "Morgan."

On the ground near the monument for the reception of the burial casket, the inner walls of the vault were completely covered with smilax and roses, so that the bare earth was at no place visible.

The religious services were very brief and simple. Dr. Fulton and Stringfellow pronouncing sentences. The eulogial service by Dr. Jenkins followed, and the benediction was then pronounced by Bishop Knickerbocker.

When Mrs. Hendricks, leaning upon the arm of Mr. Morgan, stepped upon the mat that led beside the grave and before the casket was removed from the hearse, she caused to look down into the last resting place of her dead only to see a picture of loveliness in its lining of green leaves and flowers. Then she turned to the grave of her child, which had been made glorious with a covering of smilax and flowers, and read in letters of white silk the name "Morgan."

On the ground near the monument for the reception of the burial casket, the inner walls of the vault were completely covered with smilax and roses, so that the bare earth was at no place visible.

The religious services were very brief and simple. Dr. Fulton and Stringfellow pronouncing sentences. The eulogial service by Dr. Jenkins followed, and the benediction was then pronounced by Bishop Knickerbocker.

When Mrs. Hendricks, leaning upon the arm of Mr. Morgan, stepped upon the mat that led beside the grave and before the casket was removed from the hearse, she caused to look down into the last resting place of her dead only to see a picture of loveliness in its lining of green leaves and flowers. Then she turned to the grave of her child, which had been made glorious with a covering of smilax and flowers, and read in letters of white silk the name "Morgan."

On the ground near the monument for the reception of the burial casket, the inner walls of the vault were completely covered with smilax and roses, so that the bare earth was at no place visible.

The religious services were very brief and simple. Dr. Fulton and Stringfellow pronouncing sentences. The eulogial service by Dr. Jenkins followed, and the benediction was then pronounced by Bishop Knickerbocker.

When Mrs. Hendricks, leaning upon the arm of Mr. Morgan, stepped upon the mat that led beside the grave and before the casket was removed from the hearse, she caused to look down into the last resting place of her dead only to see a picture of loveliness in its lining of green leaves and flowers. Then she turned to the grave of her child, which had been made glorious with a covering of smilax and flowers, and read in letters of white silk the name "Morgan."

On the ground near the monument for the reception of the burial casket, the inner walls of the vault were completely covered with smilax and roses, so that the bare earth was at no place visible.

The religious services were very brief and simple. Dr. Fulton and Stringfellow pronouncing sentences. The eulogial service by Dr. Jenkins followed, and the benediction was then pronounced by Bishop Knickerbocker.

When Mrs. Hendricks, leaning upon the arm of Mr. Morgan, stepped upon the mat that led beside the grave and before the casket was removed from the hearse, she caused to look down into the last resting place of her dead only to see a picture of loveliness in its lining of green leaves and flowers. Then she turned to the grave of her child, which had been made glorious with a covering of smilax and flowers, and read in letters of white silk the name "Morgan."

On the ground near the monument for the reception of the burial casket, the inner walls of the vault were completely covered with smilax and roses, so that the bare earth was at no place visible.

The religious services were very brief and simple. Dr. Fulton and Stringfellow pronouncing sentences. The eulogial service by Dr. Jenkins followed, and the benediction was then pronounced by Bishop Knickerbocker.

When Mrs. Hendricks, leaning upon the arm of Mr. Morgan, stepped upon the mat that led beside the grave and before the casket was removed from the hearse, she caused to look down into the last resting place of her dead only to see a picture of loveliness in its lining of green leaves and flowers. Then she turned to the grave of her child, which had been made glorious with a covering of smilax and flowers, and read in letters of white silk the name "Morgan."

On the ground near the monument for the reception of the burial casket, the inner walls of the vault were completely covered with smilax and roses, so that the bare earth was at no place visible.

The religious services were very brief and simple. Dr. Fulton and Stringfellow pronouncing sentences. The eulogial service by Dr. Jenkins followed, and the benediction was then pronounced by Bishop Knickerbocker.

When Mrs. Hendricks, leaning upon the arm of Mr. Morgan, stepped upon the mat that led beside the grave and before the casket was removed from the hearse, she caused to look down into the last resting place of her dead only to see a picture of loveliness in its lining of green leaves and flowers. Then she turned to the grave of her child, which had been made glorious with a covering of smilax and flowers, and read in letters of white silk the name "Morgan."

On the ground near the monument for the reception of the burial casket, the inner walls of the vault were completely covered with smilax and roses, so that the bare earth was at no place visible.

The religious services were very brief and simple. Dr. Fulton and Stringfellow pronouncing sentences. The eulogial service by Dr. Jenkins followed, and the benediction was then pronounced by Bishop Knickerbocker.

When Mrs. Hendricks, leaning upon the arm of Mr. Morgan, stepped upon the mat that led beside the grave and before the casket was removed from the hearse, she caused to look down into the last resting place of her dead only to see a picture of loveliness in its lining of green leaves and flowers. Then she turned to the grave of her child, which had been made glorious with a covering of smilax and flowers, and read in letters of white silk the name "Morgan."

On the ground near the monument for the reception of the burial casket, the inner walls of the vault were completely covered with smilax and roses, so that the bare earth was at no place visible.

The religious services were very brief and simple. Dr. Fulton and Stringfellow pronouncing sentences. The eulogial service by Dr. Jenkins followed, and the benediction was then pronounced by Bishop Knickerbocker.

When Mrs. Hendricks, leaning upon the arm of Mr. Morgan, stepped upon the mat that led beside the grave and before the casket was removed from the hearse, she caused to look down into the last resting place of her dead only to see a picture of loveliness in its lining of green leaves and flowers. Then she turned to the grave of her child, which had been made glorious with a covering of smilax and flowers, and read in letters of white silk the name "Morgan."

On the ground near the monument for the reception of the burial casket, the inner walls of the vault were completely covered with smilax and roses, so that the bare earth was at no place visible.

The religious services were very brief and simple. Dr. Fulton and Stringfellow pronouncing sentences. The eulogial service by Dr. Jenkins followed, and the benediction was then pronounced by Bishop Knickerbocker.

When Mrs. Hendricks, leaning upon the arm of Mr. Morgan, stepped upon the mat that led beside the grave and before the casket was removed from the hearse, she caused to look down into the last resting place of her dead only to see a picture of loveliness in its lining of green leaves and flowers. Then she turned to the grave of her child, which had been made glorious with a covering of smilax and flowers, and read in letters of white silk the name "Morgan."

On the ground near the monument for the reception of the burial casket, the inner walls of the vault were completely covered with smilax and roses, so that the bare earth was at no place visible.

The religious services were very brief and simple. Dr. Fulton and Stringfellow pronouncing sentences. The eulogial service by Dr. Jenkins followed, and the benediction was then pronounced by Bishop Knickerbocker.

When Mrs. Hendricks, leaning upon the arm of Mr. Morgan, stepped upon the mat that led beside the grave and before the casket was removed from the hearse, she caused to look down into the last resting place of her dead only to see a picture of loveliness in its lining of green leaves and flowers. Then she turned to the grave of her child, which had been made glorious with a covering of smilax and flowers, and read in letters of white silk the name "Morgan."

On the ground near the monument for the reception of the burial casket, the inner walls of the vault were completely covered with smilax and roses, so that the bare earth was at no place visible.

The religious services were very brief and simple. Dr. Fulton and Stringfellow pronouncing sentences. The eulogial service by Dr. Jenkins followed, and the benediction was then pronounced by Bishop Knickerbocker.

When Mrs. Hendricks, leaning upon the arm of Mr. Morgan, stepped upon the mat that led beside the grave and before the casket was removed from the hearse, she caused to look down into the last resting place of her dead only to see a picture of loveliness in its lining of green leaves and flowers. Then she turned to the grave of her child, which had been made glorious with a covering of smilax and flowers, and read in letters of white silk the name "Morgan."

On the ground near the monument for the reception of the burial casket, the inner walls of the vault were completely covered with smilax and roses, so that the bare earth was at no place visible.

The religious services were very brief and simple. Dr. Fulton and Stringfellow pronouncing sentences. The eulogial service by Dr. Jenkins followed, and the benediction was then pronounced by Bishop Knickerbocker.

When Mrs. Hendricks, leaning upon the arm of Mr. Morgan, stepped upon the mat that led beside the grave and before the casket was removed from the hearse, she caused to look down into the last resting place of her

PROFESSIONAL TRADES.

OGDEN H. METHERS,
HENRY C. SMITH,
Fathers, Jeffris & Smith,
ATTORNEYS AND COUNSELLORS

JEFFRIES BLOCK - JANEVILLE, WIS.
Aug 22nd 1861

EDWIN F. CARPENTER, ENNET D. McGOWAN,

Carpenter & McGowan

ATTORNEY'S AT LAW

LAWFIRM'S BLOCK.

JANEVILLE - WISCONSIN.

JOHN WINANS.

Winaus & Hyzer,

ATTORNEYS AT LAW

BENNETT'S BLOCK - WISCONSIN

separately

Horse Shoeing.

JAMES GARDNER!

has opened an establishment at East Milwaukee Street, corner of Main and State, where he gives his attention to horse shoeing and collects the pay of horse owners.

Special attention given to horses of inferior breeding, racing, etc., etc.

MAT. W. HAWLEY, M. D.

Lady Physician

and Ovarian Doctor.

Office in Milwaukee's block, River St., between 10 & 12 m. and 2 to 5 p.m.

Corner Milton Avenue and Harmony, 1st ward.

EX-LEADERS OF WOMEN'S CHILDREN'S ASSOCIATION - exclusively

C. I. PEIRCE,

DENTIST,

Corner Milwaukee and River St.

Bennett's Block, O. P.

dearly

GEO. H. McCAUSEY

SURGEON DENTIST

Office in Milwaukee's block, opposite First and Second Streets, between 10 & 12 m.

Preservor of Natural Teeth especially Nitrous-Oxide gas - untempered - the painless extraction of teeth.

W. H. GROVE,

Arch First St.

All work is carried out by hand.

A Specialty Made of Horse Shoeing.

Also have shop right to use the celebrated

Easy Shoeing outfit. Ask Agent for Sir

George's Catalogue. Call and see it will give you the best service.

H. H. BLANCHARD

Attorney-at-Law

MAIN STREET, SMITH'S BLOCK.

Attention given to collections and foreclosures, Mortgages,

Morty to Law.

C. M. & F. M. SCANLON

Lawyers.

JANEVILLE - WISCONSIN

WILL PRACTICE IN ALL THE COURTS OF

THE STATE - PENSION BUSINESS

SPECIALLY.

Office Opposite the Post Office or mailhouse.

T. JUDD,

DENTIST

MAIN STREET, WISCONSIN.

JANEVILLE.

O. R. DAVIS

Theorist, Gambler, Violin and Clarinet Soloist.

Most thorough teacher - follows the course of the College of Music of a thousand instruments, and can teach any instrument, e. g. By taking this course you get the benefit of a conservatory course and save time and money. Also, you get the benefit of the best and handsomest instruments with best prepared music, etc., etc., by mail through Dr. J. A. Davis, F. O. O. call him at my room, address block, JANEVILLE, WIS.

JOSEPH SCHMID BREWING CO.

OF MILWAUKEE, WIS., REPRESENTATIVE TO

ALL THE BREWERIES IN THE WORLD.

Mr. Schmid's block, JANEVILLE, WIS.

F. M. HAWLEY, M. D.

Eclectic Physician

And Surgeon

Office in Milwaukee's block, River street, Office hours, from 10 to 12 m. and 2 to 4 p.m.

Residence corner Main and Second Streets, opposite the County Courthouse, etc.

will be pleased to answer all your questions.

Careful Attention Given

To the Treatment of Chronic and

Various Diseases.

F. C. LINDE HAMILTON & CO.

TOBACCO INSPECTORS

ANDWAREHOUSEMAN.

New York.

County Sampling promptly attended to

T. E. MARSH, AGENT

Milton Junction and Edgerton, Wis.

and gaudaville.

C. E. BOWLES

Real Estate and Loan Agent

Opposite the Court House, JANEVILLE, WIS.

Offers to buyers an attractive lot of Real Estate, JANEVILLE, WIS., and invites negotiations with those having property to sell or exchange.

HONEY LOAN - W. H. L. Smith, examined, and carefully answered. Careful Attention Given

To the Treatment of Chronic and Various Diseases.

CHARLES GAUL,

Fancy Dyeing.

Costume Clothes Cleaned and Repaired, All of Cloth, etc., including Cotton, Wool,

etc., Linen, Silk, etc., etc., etc.,

etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc.,

etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc.,

etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc.,

etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc.,

etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc.,

etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc.,

etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc.,

etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc.,

etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc.,

etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc.,

etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc.,

etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc.,

etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc.,

etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc.,

etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc.,

etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc.,

etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc.,

etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc.,

etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc.,

etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc.,

etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc.,

etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc.,

etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc.,

etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc.,

etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc.,

etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc.,

etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc.,

etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc.,

etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc.,

etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc.,

etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc.,

etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc.,

etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc.,

etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc.,

etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc.,

etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc.,

etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc.,

etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc.,

etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc.,

etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc.,

etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc.,

etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc.,

etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc.,

etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc.,

etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc.,

etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc.,

etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc.,

etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc.,

etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc.,

etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc.,

etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc.,

etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc.,

etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc.,

etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc.,

etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc.,

etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc.,

etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc.,

etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc.,

etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc.,

etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc.,

etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc.,

etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc.,

etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc.,

etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc.,

etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc.,

etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc.,

etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc.,

etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc.,

etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc.,

etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc.,

etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc.,

etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc.,

etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc

THE GAZETTE.

WEDNESDAY DECEMBER 2.

LOCAL MATTERS.

The McKey's have just received from the market and will open to-morrow new holiday goods in fancy dress goods at 50 cents on the dollar of former prices.

Solid meat oysters at C. O. D., only 25 cents a quart.

No water put in oysters to sell at 25 cents, at C. O. D.

SITUATION WANTED—By a first class nurse. Best of references given. Enquire at 50 South Jackson street.

Try Eldridge's Asthma remedy.

The best line of goods at the lowest prices to be found only at McKey's.

If you intend to buy any holiday presents, go to R. A. Horn's jewelry store, for every dollar's worth you buy, you have a chance of getting a beautiful gold bronze French clock valued at $25. Your chance is good from now till the first of January.

Holiday goods and playing cards at Eldridge's.

New millinery goods to-morrow at McKey's.

Three scissors nickel plated, in a case for $1.00 at Wheeck's.

For anything in the handkerchief line, linen or silk, see the immense stock opened at McKey's.

FOR SALE CHEAP.—A second hand horizontal boiler.

GAZETTE PRINTING CO.

McKey's are showing some choice things this month.

Elegant toilet sets at Eldridge's.

Why will you pay 10 cents a pound for goods that I sell you for 6¢? etc.

4 lbs ginger snaps..... 25

4 lbs frosted oreos..... 25

4 lbs milk crackers..... 25

4 lbs sweet crackers..... 25

4 lbs Daisy oyster crackers..... 25

5 lbs Gem oyster crackers..... 25

Pearl biscuits..... 10

Johnson Brothers goods, at 16, 18, 20 and 22 River street.

WANTED—A car load of heavy horses weighing from 1,400 to 1,600 pounds. Will be at Jackman's livery barn for a few days after Friday of this week.

D. HARRON, Green Bay, Wis.

The best oysters ever sold in Janesville at any price can be bought for 25 cents a quart at C. O. D.

Mandarin oranges, Florida oranges, Alimor grapes, pears, pitted plums and prunes, bunch, dessert and cooking raisins, currants, citron, plum puddings, celery, 1 and 2 pound loaves of bread 5 and 10 cents a loaf, or 6 for 25 cents at Deniston's.

100 loaves of bread a day at C. O. D.

Fresh lake fish 8¢ per pound at Senn & Son's.

150 loaves of bread on Saturday at C. O. D.

Toys pianos $1.00 at Wheeck's.

Only one profit and a small one satisfies Archie Reid on cloaks.

Blanking cases and ottomans combined from $1.50 to $5 each, at Wheeck's.

Look at This.

For sale or exchange, about 40 acres of well improved tobacco land within one mile of city limits.

H. H. BLANCHARD.

All kinds of harness, blankets and lap robes, at James Fathen's.

A barber's chair and glass and a few more good coal, heating and cooking stoves which will be sold at reasonable rates at Senn & Son's near Gazette office.

More good news from C. E. Bowles, in this column.

Wolf, buffalo and goat robes, at James Fathen's, corner Court and Main streets.

Archie Reid's children's cloaks are the most complete line in town and at the regular wholesale prices make them 25 per cent the cheapest.

—Buy your cloaks at Archie Reid's and see if you don't save one profit.

Archie Reid's 54 inch flannels are the cheapest goods ever offered at 65¢.

For Sale—A new milch cow.

CARLOS BROWN, 2nd Ward.

The Northwestern steam laundry at Madison has the reputation of being the finest laundry west of Troy, New York. Work left at Holmes & Son's, the Janesville agents, before six o'clock Tuesdays will be returned Saturday. Satisfaction guaranteed, and all losses satisfactorily adjusted.

Archie Reid offers 10 pieces of good wooden cloaking from 75 cents upwards, that are worth from $1.50 and upwards.

Remember Archie Reid's headquarters on sample hoseery and underwear of all kinds.

Two houses and lots for $700 each, for sale by C. E. Bowles.

To Rent.—Part of large house, four rooms and cellar. Two doors east John Watson's, second ward.

Blankets, blankets, Good gray 90c, white $1.25. Don't buy a blanket until you call and examine Archie Reid's.

I will sell 9-1/2 acres of choice land with a small house and a four-acre tobacco shed, both built this year, all for $1,500. Situated near Blind Institute, in the city, and a very desirable property. The price. This bargain cannot be duplicated.

C. E. BOWLES.

Be sure and see her, Garland stove before buying any other.

MCGALE & GOWDEY.

W. C. Horner & Son will not be un-sold by any one in the business. Pants, $5 upward, is an old thing with us. Come and see better bargains than can or will be offered elsewhere. All goods warranted, and guaranteed to fit, every time, for five dollars; finer goods in proportion. See our new overcoating; fine and medium business suits. Wedding outifts a specialty, at figures that beat them all.

A competent teacher desires to organize classes in German, French, Greek or Latin. All desiring to study these languages please address box 1012.

BRIEFS.

The last night of the theater.

Only one tramp before the municipal court-to-day.

Fun at the orange race to-morrow night at the rink.

Night Officer McGinley captured a tramp last evening.

Cottage prayer meeting to-night at the residence of Mr. John Horn on Race street.

The Wood county libel suit still occupies the attention of the circuit court.

Mr. H. D. McKinney is putting a new galvanized iron roof upon his Court street residence.

The prohibitionists hold their regular monthly meeting this evening in the rooms of the Y. M. C. A.

Wisconsin Lodge No. 14, I. O. O. F. occupy Odd Fellows hall this evening—regular weekly meeting.

"The Stage Struck Chamberlain'd" and "The Iron Will" at the opera house this evening—the last night of the engagement.

Richardson & Becker's windows shone like a rainbow because of the display of many colored slippers. They are preparing for the holiday trade and have an excellent stock to select from.

Mr. K. B. Robinson has purchased of John Livingston the saloon and fixtures in the Myers house and this evening will open up with a "free lunch" and cordially invite his friends to call.

Christol and Leon, the wrestlers who were in the city some time ago, are now in Omaha, Nebraska, and are taking in the people of that city in the same cordial manner that they did the Janesvilleans.

Richardson & Becker's windows shone like a rainbow because of the display of many colored slippers. They are preparing for the holiday trade and have an excellent stock to select from.

Mr. K. B. Robinson has purchased of John Livingston the saloon and fixtures in the Myers house and this evening will open up with a "free lunch" and cordially invite his friends to call.

Every Sunday school in the county is expected to be represented by one or more delegates. Come and bring your Bibles and Gospel Songs. Colossians 3, 15, 16, 17.

OFFICERS.

President—J. T. Wright.

Secretary and Treasurer—Fred Grifling.

Vice Presidents—Prof. E. G. Smith, J. E. Butler, Edward Rager, R. M. Benson and S. G. Burdick.

TRANSFERS OF STOCK COMPANY MEMBERS.

The following real estate transfers were recorded during the week ending December 1st as reported by C. E. Bowles, Real Estate and Loan Agent:

John Andre Pettigrew to Wm. H. Hartfield, lot 17 in block 17, village of Evansville..... 400.00

Thomas Schmitz to Albert Schmitz..... 38-100 acre in fraction lot 8 in section 15, Fulton..... 75.00

Thomas Schmitz to Wm. Kline..... 25

Henry W. Kline to Wm. Kline..... 25

Heinrich W. Kline to John N. Kline..... 25

Janesville Anti-Horse Thief society held a meeting last evening at which there was a good attendance. Mr. C. L. Clark resigned as one of the riders, and M. A. Newman was elected to fill the vacancy. The meeting adjourned until Tuesday evening, December 15th.

—Simply as a reminder to distant readers of the Gazette that we are now experiencing a season of unprecedented pleasant weather, we will state that this morning Mrs. John Mathers, of the second ward, cut a handsome bouquet of flowers from her garden. The plants having been out doors, unprotected, all the fall, many of them are now in full bloom.

—When it comes to dressing show windows, Herb Allen at Frank Smith's store, takes the largest share of the gate money in the hat and furnishing goods line, but the goods in the windows are but samples of the large assortment of new styles to be found in the store, which Herb would be glad to show any one desiring goods in that line.

—At the orange race at the rink to-morrow night the box of oranges will be placed at one end of the rink and each one entering for the race will have a basket at the other end, and each one will be allowed to carry but one orange at a time to his basket till all are gone from the box, and the one having the most oranges in his basket will be declared the winner.

—The fire department committee of the common council to-day purchased a handsome chestnut sorrel horse, costing 5 years old, for use in the fire department.

The horse is a handsome one, and appears to be without a blemish, weighs 1,350 pounds. The price paid was $200. The horse has been hitched to one of the hose carriages and appears to take the load along to the satisfaction of those best qualified to judge.

—City Clerk C. E. Church to-day delivered the state and county tax rolls to City Treasurer J. A. Blount. The usual warrant for collection is attached and the city treasurer is now ready to receive calls from those who have taxes to pay. The total state and county tax apportioned to Janesville is $10,009.00, the valuation being $4,055,130 making the tax about half of one percent or $460 upon each $1,000 valuation.

—The Gazette is in receipt of a letter from Mr. C. W. Ferguson, written at Red Cloud, Nebraska, under date of Nov. 20th, in which he describes the weather as delightful, mercury 70 above zero. The herds of fat cattle, and the enchanting presence of Nebraska's fair maidens, impress the writer as among the attractions of the west, and should be an incentive to any young man to observe the advantages of Horace Greeley. Mr. Ferguson is enjoying a good trade and will visit Denver before his return.

—There was a fair sized audience at the opera house last evening to witness the rendition of Mr. Lawrence Marston's version of "Camilie," Miss Lillian Dunn appearing as "Camilie," and in her emotional acting won many new friends in this city. The company is one of the best that has visited this city in a long time, and deserves a much larger patronage than is bestowed. To-night will be their last appearance in this city, and a double bill is presented—"The Stage Struck Chamberlain'd" and "The Iron Will." With the low price of admission—15, 25 and 35 cents—the opera house should be packed.

—Buy your cloaks at Archie Reid's and see if you don't save one profit.

Archie Reid's 54 inch flannels are the cheapest goods ever offered at 65¢.

For Sale—A new milch cow.

CARLOS BROWN, 2nd Ward.

The Northwestern steam laundry at Madison has the reputation of being the finest laundry west of Troy, New York. Work left at Holmes & Son's, the Janesville agents, before six o'clock Tuesdays will be returned Saturday. Satisfaction guaranteed, and all losses satisfactorily adjusted.

Archie Reid offers 10 pieces of good wooden cloaking from 75 cents upwards, that are worth from $1.50 and upwards.

Remember Archie Reid's headquarters on sample hoseery and underwear of all kinds.

Two houses and lots for $700 each, for sale by C. E. Bowles.

To Rent.—Part of large house, four rooms and cellar. Two doors east John Watson's, second ward.

Blankets, blankets, Good gray 90c, white $1.25. Don't buy a blanket until you call and examine Archie Reid's.

I will sell 9-1/2 acres of choice land with a small house and a four-acre tobacco shed, both built this year, all for $1,500. Situated near Blind Institute, in the city, and a very desirable property. The price. This bargain cannot be duplicated.

C. E. BOWLES.

Be sure and see her, Garland stove before buying any other.

MCGALE & GOWDEY.

W. C. Horner & Son will not be un-sold by any one in the business. Pants, $5 upward, is an old thing with us. Come and see better bargains than can or will be offered elsewhere. All goods warranted, and guaranteed to fit, every time, for five dollars; finer goods in proportion. See our new overcoating; fine and medium business suits. Wedding outifts a specialty, at figures that beat them all.

Miss Jessie Palmer, of Whitewater, gives an eloquent entertainment at the church on Wednesday evening of this week.

Spent Christmas.

I offer my entire stock of sheet music and music books for sale at cost. Sale to commence until January 1st. Now is the time for bargains.

WALTER HELMS.

C. O. D.

Never mind your Bower City crackers, when you can buy Johnson Bros' elaborated oyster crackers for five cents per pound.

Rock County Sunday School Convention.

ASHBURN CALENDAR.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Wilber F. Oarie, of the first ward, was the scene of a happy gathering this morning, the occasion being the marriage of their daughter, Katie, to W. H. Ashburn, Jr. About sixty relatives and intimate friends of the families were present, and at ten o'clock the ceremony was performed by the Rev. C. B. Wilcox, of Oshkosh, formerly pastor of Court Street M.E. church, assisted by the Rev. Walter A. Evans of this city.

PROGRAMME.

TUESDAY.

2:00 p. m.—Devotional—led by Rev. E. M. Curry.

3:30 p. m.—Words of Welcome—Rev. Henry Sewell, pastor of First Congregational Church, Appleton, president of the Association of Committees.

4:00 p. m.—Devotional—Rev. Miller Wells.

5:00 p. m.—Biblical Discourses—Rev. E. G. Smith.

6:00 p. m.—Devotional—Rev. E. L. Eaton.

WEDNESDAY.

10:00 a. m.—Devotional—led by Rev. L. W. Gowan.